A Base Slander. "A rumor is current on our streets that his satanic majesty appeared to some of the boys as they were carousing at a cer-tain house after midnight on a recent occasion. - Manheim Sentinel. This is intended to refer to H. H. Foy's restaurant. As such it is utterly false "His satanic majesty" wasn't there; he isn't expected, and the Sentinal knows that this publication is a base slander, and if the author of it is found he will catch -his "satanic majesty."

A Child of the Blate."-Our people are assured of a most enjoyable entertainment at the opera house to-night, when and where will be produced, for the first time in this city, Mr. George Hoey's thrilling and romantic melo-drama of "A Child of the tate. The Hocy & Hardie combination, which will present the play here, have scored a brilliant success with it, and come bearing the most complimentry testimonials from press and public, from which we reproduce the following clipped from the Wilkesbarre Union-Leader: "The effects in 'A Child of the State' are all of them grand and effective. It is full of the most pathetic scenes and passages and audiences are melted to tears invol-untarity. The aim of the drama is notably praiseworthy. It is wholesome and pure, and n point of construction is a model indeed." Mr. Hoey and Mr. Hardie are known as actors of acknowledged ability, while Miss Ellen Cummins and Minnie Monk are artists of reputation. Miss Menk was in the aast of the 'Two Orphaus' on its representation here. Sternberg-Fritch-Wilhelmj-On next Friday evening the Sternberg, Fritch and Wilhelmj grand concert combination will appear at the opera house, and it is very doubtful it another uch great musical attraction will be here again this season. Wilhelmj is acknowledged to be without a superior among living violinists; while Constantine Sternberg, the handsome young Prussian planist, has been creating an immense turor at his concerts in New York. Accompanying these great artists is Miss Letitia Fritch, a most charming somestress. Mr. Max Vogrich, an accomplished musician, will be the musical director. The sale of seats commences on Tuesday morning at 90'clock. We quote the following from the Boston Traveller: The claim of Herr August Wilhelmj to be the first of living violinists is nceded by calm and unsympathetic Boston. His success was instantaneous and complete and his victory was all the more sublime that it was won, not through any trick or artifice, but through the triumph of his great genius and his complete mastery over his instrument. · He carried the audience, critical as it was cultivated, by storm. It amounted to positive inspiration, and Wilhelmj was rewarded by an ovation which showed that his auditors were not only sym-

IN RUINS.

Large Mill Burned-Lives Lost. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Dec. 4 .- Shortly after six o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the fifth story of the Kearsarge mills, and in less than an hour the mammoth brick structure was in ruins. The fire is reported to have caught from a piece of waste in the hands of an employee igniting at a gas jet. The fire department failing to check the fire, the mayor telegraphed to Newburyport for assistance.

At the present moment the Free Will Baptist church opposite the mill, and in a dangerous proximity to a frame dwelling, is on fire. It is reported that a man named Greenwood, an employee, was burnrd to death in the mill, while several others were badly burned and cannot recover. In the present confusion it is impossible to ascertain the loss on the factory, but it is fully

Later Details. The loss is estimated at not far from half a million dollars, besides throwing out of employment three hundred and fifty hands, upon the majority of whom much suffering must fall this winter. The occupants had a narrow escape, some of them having to leap over the flames, and several were severely burned. One person was burned to death. The Baptist church was damaged more by water than by fire. Sparks ignited several buildings and much alarm was caused.
